

Attraction in Jodhpur

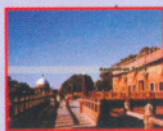

Mehrangarh : Mehrangarh is the name of the Jodhpur fort built in 1459 by Rao Jodha. It is of the chief tourist attractions. The fort made of red sand stone gives elegant look with its carved windows and walls. Various Ragas of Indian music have been carved in the form of pictures. Fort houses four Mahals along with famous Chamunda temple. The cannons on the rampart near Chamunda temple are among the rarest in India.

Jaswanr Thada : A monument of royal cenotaphs in white marble, located near the fort was built in 1899 in memory of Maharaja Jaswant Singh. Its reflection in adjacent pond presents stunningly beautiful sight in moonlight.

Umaid Bhawan Palace : A majestic royal structure in Jodhpuri Chhitter sandstone, which reminds the beholder of beauty and splendor of Taj Mahal. It took about 16 years for its construction. The unique feature of the palace is that the hard chiseled sand stone blocks have been put together in a special system of interlocking, without any mortar binding. Palace has now a Heritage Hotel, Museum and royal residence.

Mandore Gardens : Mandore, was the ancient capital of Marwar, before 1459, has umbrella shaped memorials of erstwhile rulers of Jodhpur amidst sprawling beautiful step garden, which remind one of the proud traditions of Jodhpur. One of the attractions of this place is the 'Hall of Heroes', which houses sixteen gigantic figures chiseled out of one single rock.

Balsamand Lake : A Balsamand Lake was constructed by Balak Rao in 1159. King Sur Singh constructed an artistic eight-pillared palace with 3 entrance gates in the lake. The palace in the lake is made of beautiful carved stone, polished with shells and filigree work.

Clock Tower : Clock Tower gives immense shopping pleasure to the local as well as to the visitors.

Kailana Lake : An artificial lake is a charming picnic spot. It is like a canvas with a splash of romantic colours. Boating facilities are available.
